(Note: This is NOT a Badger game day. Lot 45 right across Dayton Street from the building will have free parking—enter on Mills Street)

What’s for Sale?

$4 hardcover picture books and non-fiction
   ($3 Friends’ members)
$2 paperbacks ($1 Friends’ members)
$2 for hardcover fiction and board books (everyone)
$2 for hardcover fiction and board books (everyone)
$3 / bag for books published in 2009 or earlier
   (everyone)

In addition to the usual selection of new and gently used children’s and young adult titles from the past few years, there will be many older books available as the CCBC staff extensively weeded its collections prior to the library’s move across campus. (We will be restocking the sale at least once on Saturday, so don't worry if you can't get there right away!)

All proceeds benefit the Friends of the CCBC, Inc., which supports the work of the Cooperative Children’s Book Center, a library serving pre-service and practicing librarians and teachers across Wisconsin.

What payment methods are accepted?

Cash, check, or institutional purchase order (you must have your institution or district’s tax exempt number, if applicable. Your institution will then be billed).

*PREVIEW SALE FOR FRIENDS OF THE CCBC MEMBERS:

Anyone is welcome to shop at the sale on Saturday from 9 -2.
Members of the Friends of the CCBC also have two opportunities to shop early:

- Friday, November 7, 5-6 p.m.
- Saturday, November 8, 8-9 a.m.

Not a Friends of the CCBC member? You can join—or renew—at the door!
